A SAFE HAVEN FOR CHILDREN: THE FAMILY

Dear brothers and sisters, the family is the place where children feel safe and loved. For their development, they need a warm and loving home. Sometimes problems arise, such as conflict, illness, or the loss of a parent, which can cause families to break apart. This mainly affects the children; they suffer the most in these situations. Even today, there are many children without parents who need extra care and attention. Foster families can provide these children with a home. A foster child always knows who their real parents are and is not legally part of the foster family. Dear Muslims, foster parents should take Islamic rules about privacy and conduct into account. Let us support children who are struggling and offer them a safe place. May Allah ﷻ make us among those who show love and mercy to orphans. Āmīn.
